

AFFIDAVIT IN ANY FACT

THE STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF DALLAS.

BEFORE ME, PATSY COLLINS

a Notary Public in and for said County, State of Texas, on this day personally appeared Gladys Shastid
4646 Travis, LA 6-6373, Business; RI 2-8157

Who, after being by me duly sworn, on oath deposes and says: I am a waitress at the Lawrence Hotel, 302 South Houston Street. Friday morning, November 22, 1963 at about 4:00 a.m. a man came into the cafe and ate a piece of pie. When he finished he came up to the cash register to pay his bill. He asked me if I was going to see the President. I told him "no" that I had seen the President at Sam Rayburn's funeral. The man then stated that if the President came he might not get out of Dallas alive or a lot of people might not want to see him get out alive. I would not swear as to which statement he made. I saw the picture of the man arrested by the Police in the paper and I believe that the man that was in the cafe is the same man. However, I am not positive. I could not swear to it.
